

Justin D. Maylang

Student

maylangf04@gmail.com

09082332972

Self-motivated individual with a talent for hands-on mechanical tasks and practical problem solving. Currently pursuing a degree in Computer Engineering, I offer strong attention to detail and intermediate proficiency in Microsoft Office. seeking a position where I can apply my adaptability and reliability to support team operations.

Experience

Freelance Computer & Mobile Technician

2022- Present

- Executed full computer setups for private clients, including hardware assembly, cable management, and operating system installation, ensuring systems were optimized for immediate use.
- Performed precision repairs on laptops and mobile devices, successfully diagnosing hardware failures such as broken screens, battery degradation, and charging port issues.
- Troubleschooled complex software and hardware conflicts, delivering reliable solutions that extended the lifespan of client devices.
- Provided consultation on PC builds and upgrades, recommending cost-effective components that maximized performance based on the client's budget. 2023 – Present

Education

Taal High School

Dr. Yanga's Colleges Inc.

- Bachelor of Science in Computer Engineering

2024- Present

Skills

- Adapt at any Environment
- Hands On Tech Skill
- Mobile Phone Repair Skill
- Communication Skill
- Problem-solving
- Creativity
- Time Management
- Eye for Detail